

From Journalist to Author: Turning Your Beat into a Book

Featuring three former Virg Hill
Journalist of the Year winners:

• Jana Boomersbach, an acclaimed and respected journalist and author of two non-fiction books based on her past investigative reports: “The Trunk Murderess: Winne Ruth Judd,” and “Bones in the Desert: The True Story of a Mother's Murder and a Daughter's Search.”

• Shanna Hogan, author of “Dancing with Death: The True Story of a Glamorous Showgirl, Her Wealthy Husband and a Horrifying Murder.” An Arizona State University journalism graduate, Hogan has written for several Arizona-based publications.

• Terry Greene Sterling, author of “Illegal: Life and Death in Arizona’s Immigration War Zone.” Sterling has been a journalist for over 25 years, and was a staff writer for Phoenix New Times for 14 years before branching out on her own. She is currently a contributor for The Daily Beast, and Writer-in-Residence at the Walter Cronkite School of Journalism and Mass Communication at Arizona State University.

Brought to you by the Valley of the Sun Chapter, Society of Professional Journalists, serving the metro Phoenix area for more than 50 years. Visit us at www.phoenixspj.org, find us at Facebook.com/phxspj, or follow @spjphx on Twitter.

WHEN: 6-8:30 p.m.
Friday, Oct. 7

WHERE: Monti’s La Casa Vieja, 100 S. Mill Ave., Tempe, AZ

COST: $5 for SPJ members and college students with ID, $10 for non-members. Payable at the door, cash or check only. *Complimentary appetizers included.

RSVP: e-mail p.collins@ananeews.com by Wednesday, Oct. 5 to reserve your seat. Put “Oct. 7 program” in the subject line.

